Henry C. Pitz used pen-and-ink and brush to create his "Laborer."

You can get equally good results on this sheet with pencil, crayon, charcoal or water color.

oh, if only ...

We'll See..

I've had a very interesting life

You know,
Sometimes
you can be
Such a bore

I Can't forget

I've always loved opera

I am a little peeved

I always wanted to be dominated

I'm looking for some kind of commitment

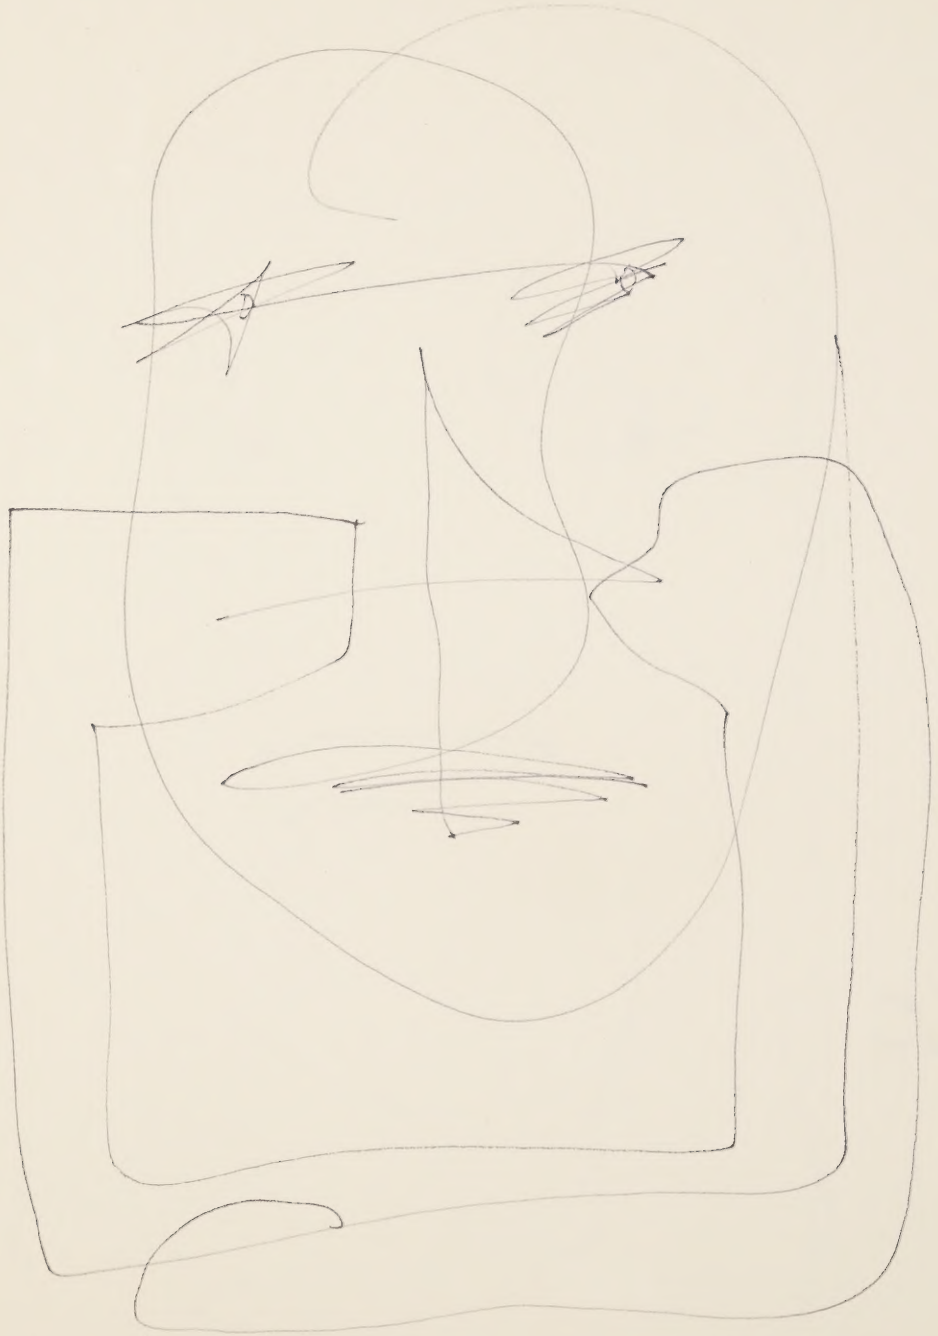
I try to cultivate
my mysterious look



I doubt it

me? I'm read for anything.

I never open up to people I meet
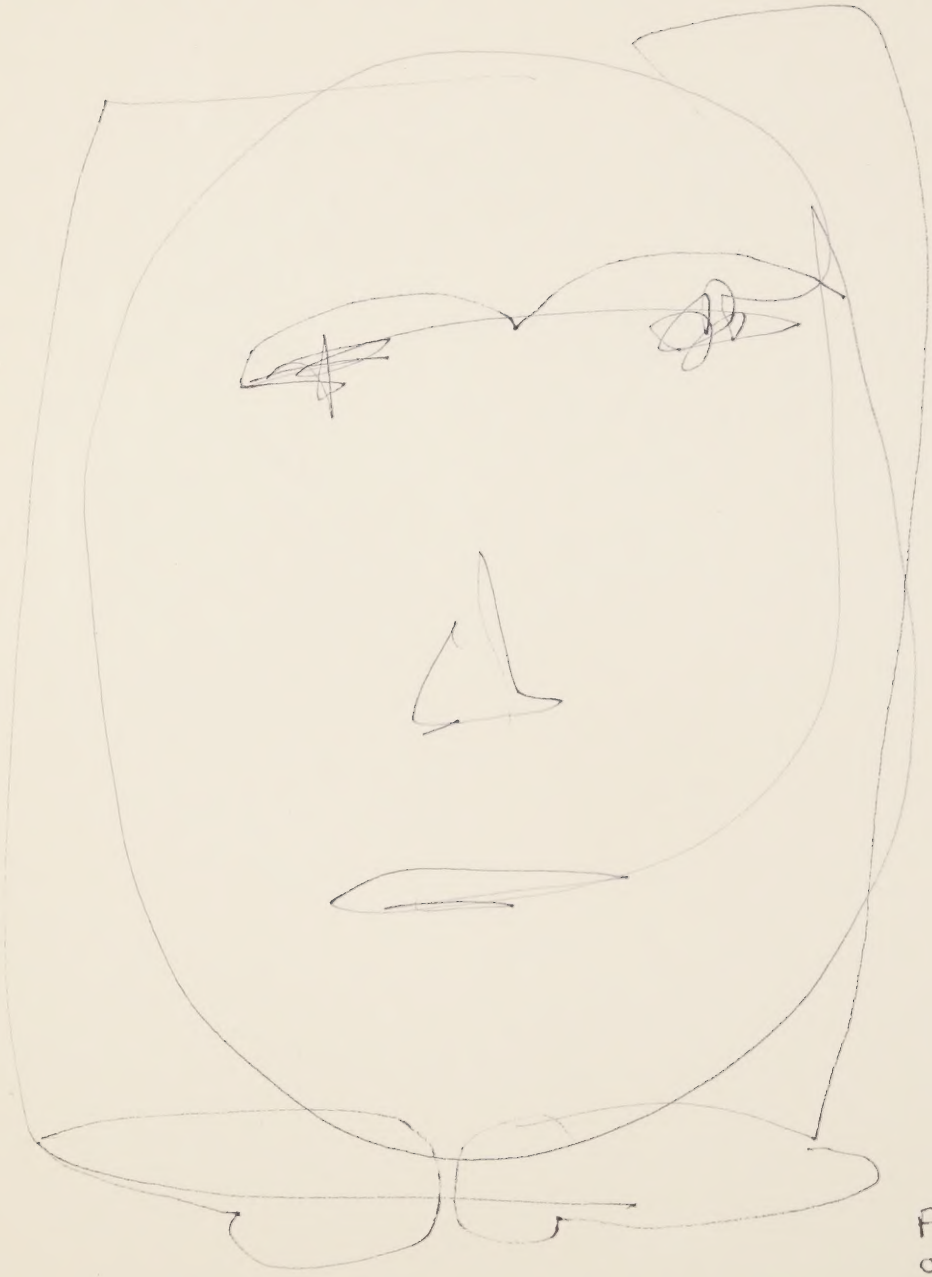
for the first time

I can be very decadent



Forgive
and forget
